R.P. CULLEY & CO

EST. 1886

Culley's takes you on a culinary journey like no other. Surrounded by the history of the Coal Exchange, Culley's celebrates the forgotten history of this remarkable building and pairs it with an eclectic offering of fine, local dishes.

Culley's is inspired by R.P. Culley; the local philanthropist who held the catering contract for The Exchange Restaurant, which was situated in the basement of this grand building. Culley made Cardiff and The Exchange his home where he soon became quite the celebrity, frequently gracing the pages of the local paper after wining and dining the money men of the day.

Like Culley, we are proud of the Exchange and want to share our passion for local heritage with our guests. Sourcing local produce is of the utmost importance and working with the finest suppliers helps to shape and influence our carefully crafted menus. Our menus change with the seasons and reflect our local surroundings including the neighbouring Valley's and Bay.

Whether you're coming for a romantic meal for two, a catch up with friends over afternoon tea or looking for a private dining experience; Culley's at The Exchange Hotel has all you need.
